Octet Makes Singing Debut On N.Y. T V

An Octet of singing Michaelmen, are quite busy this week.

Thursday night at 10:30 they were featured on WRGB-TV in a special St. Michael's College program televised from Schenectady on Channel Four.

"KNIGHTLIGHTS," FEATURE ACT

Friday night at 8, the Michaelmen were featured in "Knightlights," the college variety show to benefit the Southern missions of the Society of St. Edmund. The show, which will also be given Sunday evening at the same time, offers the top campus talent, and is presented by the Mission Crusade in the St. Michael's College Playhouse.

Director of the group is Bob Foskett of Staten Island, N. Y. Accompanist is Reid Loudon of Holyoke, Mass.

4 STATES REPRESENTED

Baritones, Christopher Carey, Benson, Vt., and John

St. Edmund To Be Honored President's Day

President's Day, traditionally celebrated on November 16, the anniversary of the death of St. Edmund Rich, will be celebrated this year on November 13. This will be a holiday in honor of the founder of the Society of Saint Edmund and mass will be obligatory for all Michaelmen.

EARLY HISTORY

St. Edmund, born in a small town in France, was the eldest son of a rather well-to-do merchant. He received his early education from his mother and then attended a nearby school where he was taught by monks. This was his first formal education and upon completion of further studies he began his teaching career at Oxford University.

While at Oxford he labored as a missionary in the surrounding countryside. Leaving Oxford, he went to the University of Paris where he continued his teaching and lecturing in Theology.

RECEIVES OWN PARISH

After teaching at Paris for a short time, he was appointed assistant at the Salisbury Cathedral. He was soon given his own parish in the village of Calne. There he became a very good friend of the townspeople in Calne.

He was then appointed to the Cathedral at Canterbury. It was here that he was to become an Archbishop and also the titular head of the Catholic church in England. Rather than bow to Henry IV on the rights granted under Magna Charta he exiled himself at Pontigny in France.

ROSIE O'GRADY REVEALED

MANY NEW TOP ACTS FEATURED

"Knightlights of '52," the long awaited Michaelmen talent show, opened last night to a packed house that roared and applauded its approval through two solid hours of lilting ballads, soft-shoe dancing and hilarious comedy.

Emceed by Bob Bolster, Sophomore class president, the revue was kept at a breakneck speed throughout and there is little doubt that "Knightlights of '52" is one of the finest talent revues ever presented on a St. Michael's stage.

The show was literally stopped so often that it was difficult at times to keep "Knightlights" as its originally planned pace. The "Sweet Rosie O'Grady" act alone was brought back again and again and several other performers were called back for unexpected encores.

SWEET ROSIE

The month long guessing game on the identity of "Sweet Rosie O'Grady" came to an end when Joe Vignaly, senior from Worcester, Mass., strutted onstage complete with ostrich plumes and monkey-fur jacket. Aided and abetted by Herb Fuller, Lou Affinite, and Leo Allard, "Sweet Rosie

Students Reminded Of Councils Power

By JERRY RYAN

After discussing the situation concerning the problem of campus students who own and drive cars on campus, the Student Council decided Monday that offenders will be subject to a hearing before the entire Council itself.

The Council, also has the delegated powers to enforce the regulations which have been posted on the various bulletin boards and printed in The Michaelman.

Violators, the Council stated, will be dealt with according to the penalties for first, second, and third offenders.

FURTHER ACTION TAKEN

Another problem which was discussed at length, regarded the drinking situation arising from the divergent laws of the various states represented by students at the college.

The Council voted to take action concerning offenders of the Vermont State law. New York, for instance, allows anyone over 18 years of age to buy or drink intoxicants, but the Vermont law, which is the regulation of St. Michael's, states that no one under 21 may buy or drink intoxicants in a public place.

MINORS TO BLAME

As yet the number of violators has been very small, but continued violations will result in difficulty with the law enforcement agencies even if some particular offense may seem trivial.

Consequently, a committee backed by the Student Council and the office of the Dean of Men will be enforcing the College regulations concerning drinking. Plans to be used in coping with the situation were also discussed and decided upon.

TELEPHONES REMOVED?

The Student Council was informed by the Administration last week that pennies have been found in the telephones in Old Hall.

As a result the College had to pay the Telephone Company $.04 for each penny found. The Council, having decided upon the necessary action, takes the opportunity here to warn the offenders that the telephones will definitely be taken out if such action continues. The warning has been given.

Bill Doyle, chairman of a committee to see about cleaning up the desks in College Hall 45, reported that the job was satisfactorily completed.

The Council voted to allocate $10.00 offering for the Mass on Election Day, and then the meeting was adjourned.

SENIORS

Final date for Shield profiles and return of portrait proofs will be Monday, November 17. Any Senior who has not made return by that date will have his picture chosen by Shield editors and his profile prepared by them. Return them to Ryan 125, or the Public Relations Office.

Arnold Society Will Sponsor Military Ball

The Arnold Air Society will sponsor the 2nd Annual Military Ball which will be held on December 12, at Fort Ethan Allen.

CHARTER MEMBERS BUSY

At a recent meeting of the Society, Roland Bourque, Peter Chiaccheri, Paul Landry, Bob Leahy, Sal Leombruno, Chris Menadier and Carmine Parrella were choses as honor cadets, bringing membership to a full quota of fifteen. These newly elected cadets and the charter members will be hard at work during the next several weeks planning and organizing in anticipation of a ball even more successful than last year's.

TO TOP RECORD

Those who attended the Ball held here at the College last year took part in setting a precedent which may soon become an occasion of major importance to be included in the College's social schedule for each succeeding year. Cooperation and response were splendid, and this year's dance will, with the help of all, turn into an even more enjoyable time for all who attend.

FOR ALL CONCERNED

PRES. EISENHOWER

If either you or your neighbor was a bit on the touchy side Wednesday then we should have extended our patience a little.

Because of the loss of sleep and general uneasiness caused by the election returns on Tuesday maybe your nerves were a little washed up, but think how General Dwight D. Eisenhower must feel with the burden of at least four future years resting on his decisions.

IMPORTANT OFFICE

After a rugged campaign which carried the General from one section of the country to another and back through previously visited sections, Eisenhower now faces the undertaking of the world's most important temporal office the presidency of the United States.

OUR RESPONSIBILITY

To help in this position it is the duty of all citizens, not only the members of Congress, to rally behind him. His decisions will be regarded as our decisions and, that we also can consider them as ours, we should all take a part.

Maybe our part will not be too active, but if we keep ourselves informed on important issues and voice our opinions to the proper authority, then we will be assuming our responsibility to Eisenhower. The proper authority includes those in local, state and federal government.

WILL VISIT KOREA

Eisenhower, after his campaign schedule, is taking but a short vacation. He assumes his new office in the middle of January, just a little over two months in the future. During that time, he is expected to travel to Korea to look over the situation, with an eye toward training South Korean troops as replacement for some of our own troops. This is but the first step which he will take before the presidency.

OUR PRAYERS NEEDED

Eisenhower is not infallible and anything we can do to make his term of office a successful one we should consider as a responsibility. The very least, though probably the most important, thing we can do is to pray for him that he might be guided to the right decisions.

We are all approaching the age where government should be one of our concerns and we should be willing to participate in that which directly concerns us.

We as Michaelmen last Tuesday asked the Holy Ghost to enlighten the voters. Now that they have spoken, we must continue to ask Divine Guidance on those they have chosen.

Springfield Area Students Meet

On Monday, at 12:30, in Science Hall 107, a meeting of the students from the Springfield, Mass., area was held. The purpose of the meeting was to organize the group as a club.

Mr. Kelly, speaking in the dual role of Secretary of the Springfield Chapter of the Alumni Association and as Moderator of the new club, directed the meeting.

XMAS DANCE UP

He explained the reason for the meeting as being the need for a greater feeling of friendship among the fellows who are united by the closeness of their homes, the need for more active cooperation with the Alumni group at home (especially in connection with the forthcoming Christmas Dance, and the further need of more constructive thought on the problem of keeping in closer touch with one another Michaelmen after graduation. This last need will be best served by getting to know one another better during student days.

OFFICERS CHOSEN

The group discussed the plans for the Christmas Dance in a general way; more specific plans will be drawn up at a forthcoming meeting which will be conducted by the students elected to office at the meeting. The officers chosen are-President - Gene Messer '53; Vice-President - Reid Louden '55; Treasurer - Jack O'Connor '54; and Secretary Steve O'Brien '55.

OVER HALF REPRESENTED

Forty-six students out of the eighty-five registered from the Springfield area attended the meeting. It is the hope of the new officers that when the next meeting is called there will be an even better representation of the group. Notice for the meeting will be posted and given by Dormitory Representatives.

Debaters Host To Middlebury And UVM

St. Michael's College debaters played host on Thursday, November 6, to debaters from Champlain College, Middlebury College and the University of Vermont.

The four colleges have been staging a series of practice round robins on the national debate topic: resolved, that there should be a compulsory FEPC.

SIDES CHOSEN

The affirmative side was argued for St. Michael's by: Arthur Ferniere, Holyoke, Mass., and Henrik N. Bredenberg, Champlain, N. Y.

The negative speakers were: Robert G. Mellen, Roslindale, Mass., and Lowell J. McPherson, New York City, N. Y.

OFFICERS

President of the Newman Debating Society at St. Michael's is John E. O'Connor Springfield, Mass., with David Mullin, Newark, N. J. as vice-president. John Carroll of Limerick, Me., is treasurer.

Prof. Edward F. Murphy is moderator of the St. Michael's Club which debates at UVM next week. A trip to Dartmouth is in the offing.

Election Day Mass

The civil duties of college students, especially in Catholic Colleges, was exphasized at a student Mass in honor of the Holy Ghost on election day, last Tuesday. On that day, a High Mass at 7:30 was offered by Rev. Lorenzo D'Agostino, SSE, moderator of the Student Council, with the intention of gaining Spiritual grace and guidance for the electorate of the nation.

The Mass was offered at the request of the Student Council.

The flyer, which the members of the Council distributed, announcing the intention of the Mass read in part, "The men whom we will choose tomorrow may very well decide not only the success or failure of the United States of America, but also, with the threat of Communism as it is today, the success or failure of the struggle between the Christian and Communist worlds of today."

The flyer urged all Michaelman to pray, not only for our leaders but also for the leaders of Communist Russia. It reminded the student body of Our Lady of Fatima's plea to "pray for the conversion of Russia."

The student body joined not only in the offering of the special Mass at 7:30, but also almost completely filled the Chapel for the regular student Mass at 7 o'clock.

Conn. Club

On Tuesday, October 27, 1952, the Conn. Club held its first annual gathering. Tony DiStasio conducted the meeting and the topic for discussion was the plans for the coming Christmas dance.

ELECTIONS HELD

It was decided to hold elections and have officers for the club. They are as follows; President - Martin Walsh; Vice-President, Gene Rielly; Secretary, Joe Castricone; Treasurer, John Burnette.

THE NEXT MEETING

A committee has been appointed to make plans for this dance and it is urgent that all the men in the Conn. area attend the next meeting. Signs will be posted when the next meeting will be held.

Eire Meets Fr. Lyons

There is no letter to the editor this week. But there are plenty of letters to St. Michael's - and with Eire postmarks.

Letters and postcards have been coming in regularly from vacationing Vice-President, Rev. Daniel P. (for Patrick) Lyons, S.S.E., giving us a complete report of his activities in " the old sod."

Father's next stop is Germany where he hopes to meet many Vermont members of the 43rd division.

Military Ball

COMPULSORY ATTENDANCE

As was the case last year, tickets are going to be compulsory, and the dress will be formal. This means for the cadet corps, the ROTC uniform worn with a white shirt and a black bow tie.

ARNOLD SOCIETY

For the benefit of these who would be interested in attending, the Arnold Air Society and The Ethan Allen Rifles of the University of Vermont, will hold their 54th Annual Military Ball on November 14th in Southwick Auditorium.

Tickets are on sale here at school in the office of Lt. Frank Delmerico, moderator of the Arnold Air Society.

Students Report Case Work

Four Vermont social agencies have offered to help St. Michael's College students who are studying Social Case Work.

TO OBSERVE CASE WORK

Rev. Dr. Lorenzo D'Agostino, SSE, chairman of the Sociology Department, today announced that some 30 students will spend three hours a week this year observing the work of the agencies. This observation will be in addition to their regular classwork.

COOPERATION PLUS

The program which will be directed by Joseph Powers, sociology instructor, will have the cooperation of the Burlington Children's Home, the Vermont Children's Aid Society, Vermont Catholic Charities and the Burlington branch of the Probation and Parole office.

STUDENTS TO REPORT

Each student will get a chance to see the problems of a particular agency and the opportunities for service. He will report back to his classmates so that all the students will be able to understand the problems of private, sectarian and federal social agencies. The program was inspired, in part, by the great shortage of trained social workers and the hope that some of the Michaelmen will be attracted to the profession.

Mr. Powers said that excellent cooperation had been offered by all the agencies and that the students are most anxious to begin their observations this week.

HILLTOPICS by FRAN HOBEN

All one has to do to prove that this is the Air age is to look over the weekly NCAA statistics of the nation's college football teams. Compiled by the NCAA branch of facts and figures, the NCAB, in last Friday's release shows a surprisingly large number of pass conscious elevens. Most of the passers are quarterbacks, who are following the example of their older brothers the Pros and willing to play percentage through the air. And in a majority of cases the practice is paying off.

This can be applied especially to New England's small colleges. On the Vermont scene all four schools have come up with good passing master-minds. Of them Vermont's Bob Deacon is probably the most talented. With a better team in front of him Deacon could compile quite a mark. But as it is he isn't doing too badly. In the Cats' first six games, the U.V.M. star has gained 859 yards and completed at a percentage of 51.8.

FOUR FOR FOUR

And there is Norwich's Ed Meehan. Although less publicized than Deacon, the Cadet field general has gained over 1000 yards through the skies this season. Of course he has a slight advantage over Deacon, about five inches worth of height (more in cleats).

Middlebury has Dick Allen, whom they think a lot of and the Knights have Ken Casperson, both of whom have done well. Casperson passed much better than his average would indicate and lacked consistent dependable pass receiving. Despite this he has totaled over 350 yards with but 18 completions.

MIS-NAMED???

Elsewhere, Billy Reebenacker is in line for the Presidency for the University of Massachusetts because of his wizardry at sending the pigskin targetward. He ranks third in the nation, totaling 1254 yards and 12 touchdowns. Bill Abruzzi, who also does some fancy steping on frequent occasions, is another ranking passer nationally while leading R.I. State.

Then on a larger scale, B.U. has Harry Agganis, who the Cleveland Browns have already expressed an interest in. B.C. has Kane; Brandeis, Stehlin; Northeastern Barisand, and on and on, so that when you stop to think about it, why in the world do they call it FOOT-ball anyway.

8 Seniors Bow Out

Won Four Vt. Crowns

Eight seniors will finish up their collegiate football careers at St. Michael's today, when the Purple Knights tangle with Champlain College in the season's finale for both.

The group, all members of last year's undefeated and untied team, are Paul Aumand, center, guard Eddie Carrier, end Dick Stokes, tackle Paul Balcom, and backs Mike Carr, Ken Casperson, Don LaBossiere, and Bob Jarvis.

They own the distinction of having won the Vermont State Championship in all four years of competition. They won the freshman crown in their first year and the state title the following two years, and by beating UVM 19-0 they claim the crown again. They also have never lost to a Vermont opponent.

MOST TOTAL YARDS

Carr, a halfback, has been the offensive king-pin this fall, averaging better than five yards per carry. In three seasons he has gained over 2000 yards, better than five yards on the average. More than any of last season's star backs Plourde, Simas and Heggarty could total.

Casperson, one of two married men on the squad, has been the signal-calling quarterback for three terms. In addition, he has done the passing and punting, and this fall added kick-offs and extra points to his repertoire.

Standouts in the line have been Aumand and Stokes. "Pop" Aumond, the other married man, has been a 60 minute performer in all but one of the games this year. Serving as both offensive center and defensive backer-up, he has done yeoman work for the Purple.

STRONG DEFENSE

Stokes, a rangy end, is the best defensive wingman on the club and another boy who could go both ways. His ability was spotlighted in the Arnold game, when he broke through to nail a would-be punter in the end zone for a safety.

Halfback LaBossiere has been so good a defensive man that Coach George "Doc" Jacobs declined to use him on offense. Yet when injuries made the team short-handed the elusive 165 pounder was called upon to carry the pigskin. In his first trip from scrimmage against Vermont, he went 30 yards. And now ranks third on the Knights in total yards gained.

Although linesmen are seldom given deserving credit, the team of Balcom and Carrier comes in for plenty of praise. Two of the hardest workers around, these two opened the needed holes time after time, and can be rated with the best forward wall material in the area.

SMC ENDS WITH JAYS; CARR AIMS AT RECORD

By BILL WIGMORE

All eyes will be on Mike Carr this afternoon as the Purple Knights, state champions for the third straight year, put the finishing touches on their 1952 football campaign by playing host to Champlain College at 1:30.

For halfback Carr, playing his final game for the Purple and Gold gridders, will be shooting for a new individual state scoring record against the Blue Jays. By scoring three TDs in the Bridgeport victory he raised his total to 10 and now has accounted for 60 points himself this season.

The record of 73 points is held by former Knight star Frank Simas. He turned the trick in 1950 by scoring 12 touchdowns and rushing for one extra point. Thus Carr needs 14 points to set a new mark.

GREATER HONORS

In addition "Crazy Legs" has an outside chance for even greater honors. After last week, the leading point getter among the Eastern Independants is Snyder of Union, and his total is just 66. However, the Union star has two more games to play.

Although it is only the third meeting of the teams, the Knights have never beaten the Jays on the gridiron. They have tied (12-12) and lost (7-6) in two previous games.

Coach Paul Woerner's team is another pass conscious outfit. They rely on the throwing arm of quarterback Dick Bierly who has passed to six TDs this year. On the receiving end Champlain has co-captains Ed Ferencik and John Roche, both reliable pass catchers.

Doing most of the running is fullback Alex Rita and halfback Sherman Wilson. Both boys are the aggressive type and can cause plenty of trouble. Co-captain John Davidson blosters the line at center.

One that didn't count. Fullback Bob Jarvis smashes through tackle to cross goal line in Bridgeport game. Play was nulified by penalty, but it wasn't needed in 39-6 win.

O'Grady" was doubtlessly one of the outstanding acts of the evening. After the show the group was approached to present their act in Burlington Rutland, and other towns throughout the state.

Herb Ashe, Irish tenor, was this side of sensational as he brought the house down with his rendition of 'Danny Boy' that had the audience shouting for an encore. He later teamed with Pat Joyal in Romberg's "One Kiss."

McGillicuddy and Sullivan, in their third year of record mimicking, came up with their inimitable pantomine of "A, You're a Dopey Gal" and had the audience figuratively "in the aisles." They were brought back for their now famous rendition of "Timtayshun."

Pat Joyal, familiar to St. Michael's audiences, topped her last year's success with a sensitive delivery of "Over the Rainbow" that she encored with the popular ballad, "Tenderly."

REID SCORES

Reid Louden not only accompanied most of the soloists but was featured in "The Parade of the Wooden Soldiers" in a dual piano organ arrangement that definitely was one of the top-flight performances of the night. He repeated with "Tico-Tico" as the audience roared its approval.

Making their debut on campus were the Arabian Knights led by Chris Carey. St. Michael's own dance band delighted the audience with its smooth arrangement of "My Shawl." They, too, stopped the show cold with "Muskrat Ramble," a Dixieland session in the best New Orleans tradition.

The Glee Club, led by capable Bill Cofrances, were especially well received with their Fred Waring arrangement of "Where'er You Walk" and "Stout-Hearted Men."

Even the comedy was well balanced. Tony Agostinelli and John Crotty teamed to present a "Bob and Ray" show rich in campus styled humor, "It's In the Book." Bob Bolster and Hank Perrine had their audience howling with their many takeoffs on acts in the show, especially in their touching and tender rendition of "Cocaine Lil."

In another outstanding comedy routine, George Filteau, Pat Joyal, Frank Pedlow and Bill Kennedy, repeated their hilarious takeoff of last year as they enacted ten mirthful wordless minutes of a silent movie, Mack Sennet stylar.

Valdini the Magician, another member of last year's show, delighted the big and small fry with his clever sleight of hand and amazing deceptions. Assisting him was Miss Maureen King of Trinity College.

BROTHER ACT

The Iarossi Brothers displayed their amazing musical versatility as they gave out in combo duets, solos and songs in ten solid minutes of music.

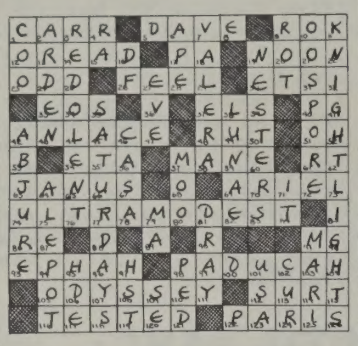
Making their inital appearances in "Knightlights" were Ray Fontaine, tenor, who sang the Italian favorite, "Sorrento," and Sam Baldo, (baritone) who was especially well received with his styling of "Night and Day."

The show closed with an entire cast finale following a memorable performance by the St. Michael's College Octet who this week were also featured in the St. Michael's television show.

SUNDAY REPEAT

"Knightlights" was directed for second straight year by Leo Allard of Woonsocked, R.I., and Paul Kelly of Delmar, N. Y., and assisted by Jack Bresnehan of Rutland, Vt.

LAST WEEK'S "TEASER"



Aids Cadet Team

Through the generous cooperation of Commander Dekin, the AFROTC rifle team has been given the use of the range at the Naval Reserve Center in Burlington.

FUTURE MATCHES PLANNED

The team, under the able coaching of M/Sgt. Kenneth Graeb, is a National Rifle Association Class B affiliate with seven postal matches already scheduled. In the near future a shoulder-to-shoulder match will be fired against UVM.

HIGH SCORE RATINGS

To date more than sixty cadets have fired qualification targets in an attempt to register high scores as team members.

The first two teams are comprised of the cadets who fired the highest scores. They are advanced cadets Richard Babel, Joseph Bachman, John McAneny, Donald McGael, Chris Menadier, Ray Moreau, Francis Quinlan, and John Quinn. Also included are basic cadets Louis Angelone and William Weihs.

FIRST SUCH REPORT EVER PUBLISHED ABOUT ANY CIGARETTE

A responsible consulting organization has reported the results of a continuing study by a competent medical specialist and his staff on the effects of smoking Chesterfield cigarettes.

A group of people from various walks of life was organized to smoke only Chesterfields. For six months this group of men and women smoked their normal amount of Chesterfields – 10 to 40 a day. 45% of the group have smoked Chesterfields continually from one to thirty years for an average of 10 years each.

At the beginning and at the end of the six-months period each smoker was given a thorough examination, including X-ray pictures, by the medical specialist and his assistants. The examination covered the sinuses as well as the nose, ears and throat.

The medical specialist, after a thorough examination of every member of the group, stated in a summary as his opinion, ". . . the ears, nose, throat and accessory organs of all participating subjects examined by me were not adversely affected in the six-months period by the smoking of the cigarettes provided."
